

20th European AIDS Conference Abstract Mentorship Programme

Preparations are underway for the upcoming European AIDS Conference, taking place 15-18 October 2025 in Paris. Abstract submission is now open online.

To support high-quality abstract submissions, the Programme and Scientific Committees invite EACS members to take advantage of the Abstract Mentorship Programme.

The Governing Board and faculty of the EACS Education and Training Programme have volunteered to offer an online mentoring service for EACS members who are interested in submitting an abstract for the Conference. This mentorship includes a critical review of the content, style and language of potential abstracts prior to submission. Please note that participation in the programme does not guarantee abstract acceptance.

If you wish to participate in this programme, please upload your potential abstract(s) and fill in the form through the link here by 28 April 2025.
